TWO KAM TEAMS IN CLOSE GAME

In a practice game of baseball at Kamehameha Saturday afternoon, the regular school team beat the grammar school nine 2-0 after playing a very close match. The youngsters have been improving right along, and the senior team had to work extra hard to make the two runs.

George Bush, who twirled for the first nine, did excellent work in the box, getting rid of eight men by the strike-out route. He is improving steadily and with a little more practice should do well against the other school teams.

J. Kaine, who was on the hill for the grammar nine did well and kept the older players guessing right through the game, allowing only four hits.

The school team had its full lineup which will comprise the team when it begins the interscholastic series next week. Captain Noah will probably go in the box during some of the games, as it is feared that Bush would be overworked.

W. Opium at second did well in the game Saturday for the senior team, stopping all kinds of hit liners which came his way. Opium is also good with the stick. He knocked out a two-bagger and was responsible for one of the runs made.

Grammar Team Strong.

The grammar team has turned out to be a strong nine. The young players have been picking up the fine points of the game and have turned out to be heady players, with lots of energy.

M. Koomi is captain of the nine and will be seen in the box when the series begins. All the players are good with the stick. The team consists mostly of sixth grade members. An other game between this aggregation and the regular school team will be played Wednesday afternoon.

The line-up Saturday was as follows:

Grammar—K. Hisai, c. Koomi, p. Stewart, b. Correa, 2b. Mitchell, 3b. P. Shipman, ss. Metlawan, rf. Fountain, cf. Hanberg, lf.

School team—R. Hussey, c. G. Bush, p. H. Brandt, b. W. Opium, 2b. W. Apau, 3b. E. Noah, ss. G. Manaha, rf. J. Kaulane, cf. D. Keleahi, lf.

GERMAN RUNNERS ADOPT AMERICAN OLYMPIC STYLE

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Many of the German athletes who compete in the Olympic games this summer will surprise spectators by running in the American style, according to James P. Tuthill, former star American half-miler, who is here for a few weeks' vacation after four years' work in Germany.

Lightbody has been observing the training of the runners of the German athletic union, several of whom will compete in the Olympic games. During the last two years he has spent much of his time traveling from one city to another giving instruction to candidates for honors in amateur long-distance races.

This work has been done independently of his regular employment with an American business house, and he still retains his position in Germany.

Lightbody will accompany the prince to the Olympic games next summer.

These officials place great stress upon the fact that this country is said to be in need of horses for the army and that, at the present time, there is no definite preparation. Lightbody, however, told what would be the result in case of war owing to the scarcity of remounts.
